ANNOUNCEMENTS

FOR SHERIFF

DUVALL.—We are authorized to announce Alonzo J. Duvall a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Crittenden county, subject to the action of the Republican party. Election 1905.

It is a 100 to 1 shot that the Democratic party will fall before Port Arthur.

Former Governor W. O. Bradley is doubtful as to whether his health will permit him to make any speeches this fall, however, he says that he feels deeply interested in Roosevelt's election.

John L. Smith, of Kuttawa, sheriff of Lyon county and editor and publisher of The Lyon County Times, was in the city Wednesday and visited us at our office. Mr. Smith has but recently purchased The Times, but has had considerable experience in the newspaper business, having been connected for some time with the Tale of Two Cities, at Eddyville, and founder of The Kuttawa Times, and judging from the past we predict that the paper will greatly improve under his watchcare.

Urey Woodson and Senators Blackburn and McCreary all three having been original Parker supporters in Kentucky, Woodson having been elected. National committeeman over the influence of Gov. Beckham which was given W. B. Haldeman, and on account of Beckham's free silver views it is very likely that credit would be given Woodson, Blackburn and McCreary in case there should be a decisive Parker victory in Kentucky this fall. Having nothing personally at stake Beckham is loath to do anything that will result finally in strengthening an enemy. This is the situation at present and it explains the inactivity at the Democratic headquarters at Seelbach's Hotel, and unless the situation changes the efforts on the part of the state machine are not apt to be free of some sort of reservation.

It is an error to suppose, as many do, that a newspaper devoted to the principles of the Republican party, as THE CRITTENDEN RECORD surely is, should not, in any possible event, see the slightest virtue in anyone affiliating with the opposition. We all have our ideals as to good government and we all, or nearly all, desire the friends belonging to our own household of faith to be close to the rudder of the ship of state, in other words, put it in what language we may, it finally resolves itself "to the victors belong the spoils," or, as Flanagan, of Texas, said, "What else are we here for?" Politically we would, as a matter of faith, oppose the reelection of Hon. Ollie M. James to the congress, and the reasons would simply be a matter of politics. Certainly Mr. James is an ideal congressman socially and physically. Cultured, well read, ambitious for his constituents as well as for himself, which is perfectly proper and to be commended, untiring, earnest, possessing all of those magnetic qualities which make and retain friends, and but one fault is apparent, he has no enemies, or but few. Now a man without enemies is not necessarily a trimmer or a bidder for popularity or a time server, but in a general way we love men for the enemies they have made, and Ollie James has none. It would be much better for Congressman James' political aspirations to get a lot of people real mad at him.

LOCAL OVERFLOW.

Mrs. Rosa Bransford is visiting her brother, Lon Johnson.

F. E. Coleman, of Shady Grove, was a caller at this office Thursday.

Mrs. Patten Thompson, of Wilson county, Tenn., is visiting Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Oakley.

The Louisville and Marion Mining Co. are now occupying an office in the post office building.

Rev. W. T. Oakley is assisting Rev. J. R. King, pastor, in a protracted meeting at Weston.

Messrs. Blue & Nunn have moved into an elegant suite of rooms in the new post office building.

Seven day tickets to St. Louis—sold daily except Friday and Saturday—$6.50 round trip.

Lon Johnson, Ag't.

F. Julius Fohs left Thursday for St. Louis where he will attend the Fair and the American Institute of Mining Engineers which convenes there Monday of which he is a member.

Wednesday about noon Chas. Evans, Superintendent of the Marion Graded School, was called home. On arriving he found a new comer in the person of a 10 pound boy. The mother and boy are getting along nicely.

Last week David Driskill rented a savage rifle from the Marion Hardware Company and left for Smithland and Paducah to visit young friends. They had an all round good time but David returned Wednesday minus a big toe having accidentally shot it off.

C. E. Weldon has in his office an Elliott Book Typewriter, but it will not be purchased without the approval of the Fiscal Court. It would cost about $175, yet it is very valuable for recording purposes.

Jim Henry returned from his Arkansas trip early on Thursday morning. He describes the country that he and Oliver Hurley passed through as simply wonderful. Jim left Marion on Tuesday and reached Smithland, Ark., (?) on Wednesday, returning to Marion early Thursday morning. Jim, during the Arkansas trip, has gained in both weight and height, but his appetite remains unchanged, and he is still taking medicine.

Another Typhoid Fever Victim.

Wednesday morning at 5 o'clock John Kirk, of near Levas, died of typhoid fever at the age of 82 years.

Death Calls Widow Turner.

Mrs. Jas. Turner, an elderly lady who resided four miles west of town near the Moore hill with her son, James, died Friday and was buried Saturday. She is survived by two sons, Jas. and Charley, and one daughter, Mrs. Fannie Drake, all of this county.

To the Public.

I am again the agent for the Magnet Laundry. As is well known there is no discount on work done by the Magnet. Best laundry, best service.

Your patronage solicited, satisfaction guaranteed.

Apt attention given to country laundry.

Give me a trial, it will be appreciated. Yours very truly,

ALBERT WALKER.

One Exchange in Operation.

We are informed by W. B. Butler, the local manager for the Peoples' Independent Telephone Co., that he has just completed the company's new exchange at Salem and it is now in operation. It is stated that the new service is rapidly being extended there.

We are also informed that the Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph Company have secured the right and will begin to put another exchange in the town at once and extend their service in Western Kentucky in the manner we have previously reported.

DON'T SHOOT

Squirrels and Rabbits From September 15 to November 15.

LAW RECENTLY AMENDED.

Formerly it was only unlawful to kill black or fox squirrels between the first day of February and the fifteenth day of June each year, it being permissible to kill gray squirrels for the protection of crops. This law was amended at the last session of the legislature making it also unlawful to kill either squirrels or rabbits between September 15th and November 15th. Under the law now as amended it will be permissible to kill squirrels from June 15th to September 15th and between November 15th and the first day of the following February, it being unlawful to kill rabbits only between September 15th and November 15th and permissible to catch them with dogs or in snares at any time. Following is the amendment in full:

"No person shall kill or pursue with such intent or have in his possession when so killed any rabbit or squirrels between the 15th day of September and the 15th day of November in each year. Provided, any one may catch rabbits with dogs or in snares."

It is unlawful to kill doves from the first day of February to the first day of August.

Harth Brothers Sell Out.

The following is taken from the Sturgis News-Democrat and will be interesting to the citizens of this place since Harth Bros. are connected with the Lucile Mining Co., operating near here:

The big firm of Harth Bros., at Caseyville, have sold their store and stock to Ames Bros., of that town. Jno. F. Harth, the head of the firm, built up one of the largest grocery businesses of the county, besides dealing extensively in grain here and in the South, and owing to the development of the grain business he will move to Paducah for headquarters, L. Harth remaining at Caseyville to look after the affairs at this end of the territory. The Messrs. Ames are young men of enterprise and business ability, and will doubtless continue to make the big Caseyville combination of stores a success.

Removed to California.

Mrs. R. E. Bigham left Saturday for Evansville where she will join W. D. Browning and family and her daughters, Misses Bettie and Lillian Bigham, all of whom preceded her there.

The company will visit friends and relatives in Evansville, and Misses Bettie and Lillian and possibly others of the company will attend the World's Fair, after which they will return to Evansville where the entire family will secure through tickets to Pomona, Cal., where they will make their future home, all arrangements having been made by R. E. Bigham who has been in California for some time.

These people have been leading citizens of Marion and we regret to lose them.

We understand the removal was necessary on account of the bad health of certain members of the family.

Died of Typhoid Fever.

After two week's sickness of typhoid fever, William G. Bebout, of Sheridan, died Wednesday at the age of 38. He was a farmer and was born and reared near Sheridan, being the son of the Rev. Israel Bebout, deceased. He was married in September, 1886, to Miss Alice D. Wilson, of this county. The funeral was conducted from the Deer Creek Baptist church, of which the deceased was a member, on Thursday at 11 o'clock, Rev. J. S. Miller, of Princeton, officiating, and the body was laid to rest in the Deer Creek cemetery. He is survived by a wife and four children.

CHAMPION & CHAMPION, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW.

The above is the picture of a law office in Marion and also its proprietors, who look alike, dress alike, walk alike and talk alike, and who are partners, brothers and twins. They are sterling young men and have been engaged in the practice of law about two years. They are 25 years of age, of erect stature and over six feet tall. It is no trouble to distinguish them in any crowd. They were born and reared in Livingston county on a farm near the village of Hampton, where their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ben Champion now reside. They have no sister and only one brother, Prof. R. R. Champion, who is principal of Salem Public Schools. The twin brothers attended the University at Lexington in 1900 and after that J. B. Champion, jr. began the study of law under Hon. J. K. Hendrick, of Paducah, and in 1901 came to Marion where he continued and completed his course under Hon. L. H. James and his son, Congressman Ollie M. James, being admitted to the Marion bar in March, 1902, Circuit Judge Nunn on the bench. Thos. W. Champion taught school in 1899, 1900 and 1901 and attended Bowling Green law school where he graduated, receiving a diploma and being admitted to the Bowling Green bar in June, 1902, Circuit Judge Warner E. Settle on the bench. The young men are acquiring a good practice and their patronage is increasing. Strange to say, while the young men are twins, matters with which they are associated often travel in parallel lines, Judges Settles and Nunn under whom they were admitted to the bar being elected to the Court of Appeals at the same time, and it is reported that there is likely to be a double wedding before long.

SLOW GRIND

Judge Gordon Adjourns the Livingston Circuit Court.

GRAND JURY WAS KEPT BUSY

County Clerk Landram Was Indicted.
But the Matter Was Held up and Then Dropped.

PROSECUTING ATTORNEY
GRAYOT WAS ABSENT

Judge Gordon arrived here yesterday morning from Smithland where he adjourned circuit court the afternoon before, and left at noon for his home in Madisonville. Nothing of especial note transpired during this term of court, and nobody was sent to the penitentiary. The most important case was that charging Editor Young E. Allison and Correspondent Joe Riley, of the Louisville Herald, with having criminally libeled Harry McClanney, secretary of state, by publishing that he made his race for the secretaryship nomination on public school funds, while state superintendent of public instruction. The case was continued.

County Clerk George Landram was here yesterday from Smithland and states that Judge Abell tried to have him indicted by the last grand jury, but did not succeed. Mr. Landram, before the recent county primary, cautioned Mr. Abell as a chicken with a man's head, while several squibs indicating grafts went along with the drawing that was printed and scattered around over the country by Mr. Landram, who was fighting Abell, and assisted in the latter's defeat. The grand jury had the indictment about returned and the commonwealth attorney was drawing same up, when friends of Landram got them to withdraw the charge, which was then dropped.

Hon. John K. Hendrick returned from Smithland yesterday. He has been acting commonwealth's attorney during the circuit court for John Grayot, who was compelled to remain at the bedside of his sick wife.—[Paducah Register of September 15th.]

The grand jury at the above mentioned term of court returned sixty-four indictments for murder, gaming, unlawful voting at primary election, giving liquor on primary election day, etc.

Will Return to Palestine.

The Daily Visitor, a newspaper published at Palestine, Texas, publishes complimentary remarks concerning the company of Kentuckians that recently visited that place, which was composed of several from Webster county and Carl Henderson, of this place. Of these Joe Weiss, of Blackford, and Henry Mitchell, of Lisman, will return to Palestine to reside. It is a prosperous city containing about 15,000 people. Messrs. Weiss and Mitchell will probably engage in farming.

Masonic Services.

All members of Bigham Lodge, No. 256 F. & A. M. are requested to meet at their Hall in Marion, Ky., Sunday evening, Sept. 25, 1904, at 2:30 o'clock for the purpose of going to the Fowler graveyard where services will be held over the grave of the late James Hitchcock. Brothers of sister lodges cordially invited.

By order of the Lodge.

Likely Discontinue Mexico.

About two months ago Mr. Myers, the postmaster at Mexico, sent his resignation to the Post Office Department to take effect the first day of October. It has been accepted and the Department has notified the patrons of the office that unless some suitable person applies for the place before that time the office will be discontinued. It appears that no one wants the office for the same reason that Mr. Myers wished to resign, the revenue derived from it not being sufficient to pay for handling the mail at the station. It is claimed that when the Frances-Vine-Crayneville mail route was discontinued and the Frances-Mexico route established, the work of the Mexico postmaster was increased without just compensation. It is hoped that someone in business at Mexico will take the office for the accommodation of its patrons.
